PLEASANT PALACE PARTY.

Impromptu Ball in Honor of the King, Admiral Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Fowler.

On such short consideration that it may fairly be called impromptu, a committee of ladies gave a ball at Iolani Palace last night, by consent and under the patronage of Their Majesties. The event was designed as a pleasant send-off to the King, Admiral Brown and officers of the Charleston, and Mr. and Mrs. Fowler. Gentleman friends volunteered the general management, in which they succeeded admirably. The party was a very pleasant one, every guest being bright and happy, and nearly all remaining till "Hawaii Poni" was played at one o'clock this morning.

The King, Queen and Princess Poomakalani held a brief informal reception at the entrance to the throne room before the opening of the ball. There was a fine display of tropical plants and flowers in the grand hallway and the blue room.
The dancing took place in the throne room, whose scores of electric lamps gave noontide-like brilliancy to the gay scene. Music for the dances was furnished by the Royal Hawaiian Band, while the Quintet Club sang on the verandas at intervals. An elegant collation was served about midnight in the banquet hall.

AN EL-QUENT PREACHER.

Rev. D. Governio, a Portuguese priest residing in California, has been preaching all last week in the Catholic Cathedral in Honolulu.
Large crowds of Portuguese have listened to him every evening; and his sermons are said to be masterpieces of sacred eloquence.

Last Sunday the Catholic church, large as it is, would not hold the Portuguese present. Father Governio now intends to make a tour of the islands shortly.

FOR THE VICTORS.

A Magnificent Cup Presented to the Hawaiian League.

Last evening as a BULLETIN reporter was wending his weary way homeward he was kindly taken by the button-hole by Mr. Geo. W.
Smith, of the firm of Benson, Smith & Co., and led in a mysterious way up the back stairs of the store.
Here, after ignoring several professional questions, Mr. Smith began opening a large black cabinet, and it is needless to say the result was entirely unexpected.

Within the cabinet was a splendid challenge cup bearing the following inscription: "The Spalding Cup, presented by A. G. Spalding and Bros. to the Hawaiian League, to become the property of the club winning it three successive seasons." On the reverse side is "Winners" in large letters, with a blank space for the names of the club and players winning the trophy.

The cup is two feet six and a half inches in height. The base is 14 inches in diameter and the extreme width of the cup proper is 15 1/2 inches. On either side of the base is the figure of a ball player; one ready to throw a ball and the other in batting position. The front of the cup contains a chased engraving of the American national game.
The two handles of the cup are mounted with two silver baseballs each bearing the name "Spalding." The cover of the cup is surmounted with a silver vase, on either side of which are two crossed bats, with a ball placed at the angle of each pair.
Above this rises the vase, which in turn is surmounted with a second cover, bearing a figure of a man playing in position holding a baseball.

The cup will be placed on exhibition at Benson, Smith & Co.'s store in a short time and will then be delivered to the Hawaiian Baseball League.

DECORATED.

Last evening at eight o'clock Hon.
S. M. Damon was invested with the Grand Officer Grade of the Order of Kalakaua, by His Majesty the King, at Iolani Palace. During the ceremony, which took place in the throne room, His Majesty was attended by the following members of the Order: Hon. J. O. Dominis, Hon. A.
S. Cleghorn, Hon. C. P. Laukae, Hon.
Samuel Parker, Col. the Hon. G. W.
Macfarlane, Hon. J. S. Walker, Hon.
H. W. Severance, His Ex. Hon. J. A.
Cummins, Col. J. H. Boyd and Mr.
M. P. Robinson. In addition to these were present Mr. F. A. Schaefer and Mr. J. W. Robertson, Vice Chamberlain.

In conferring the decoration His Majesty said: "It is our pleasure to bestow upon you, Mr. Damon, the Grand Officer grade of the Royal Order of Kalakaua, in recognition of the many services you have rendered the Sovereign, the State and the allies of the Kingdom, and also in recognition of the ability shown by you during your administration as Minister of Finance. May health, happiness and prosperity attend you in the future."

TESTIMONIAL.

LORD FAUNTLEROY.

Olive Berkley the Great Child Actress.

Saturday evening, Dec. 6th, the public will have an opportunity to see one of the brightest children on the stage, Olive Berkley. Little Olive arrived on the last trip of the Alameda, accompanied by her mother.

There will be a good company to support her and those interested can look forward to a fine entertainment.

The cast and other particulars will be announced later. The opening programme will be the charming sketch "Edithas' Burglar," together with the last two acts of "Little Lord Fauntleroy." This remarkable child comes to Honolulu with excellent new-paper recommendations, as the following will show—

"The success depended upon the part of Little Lord Fauntleroy. This was done Miss Olive Berkley, a child not over ten years. It was played in a manner that completely disarms criticism. A more distinct individ-ualization of a character it would be impossible to imagine, and a happier or more natural impersonation inconceivable. Those who have not seen this particular performance cannot realize how interesting and how fascinating may be a clever bit of acting by a phenomenally clever child."—[Melbourne Age.]

FELL FROM A BRIDGE.

Last week a native boy while playing on the railing of Smith's bridge, fell therefrom. In falling his head grazed the bridge timbers, making a scrap wound from which the blood flowed freely. He struck the water head first and went to the bottom of the stream, receiving other severe injuries upon the head. The boy was picked up by a boatman and was found to be insensible. He was taken to the house of some friends and is now doing well.

A BIG CONTRACT.

By the arrival of the last mail it is learned that the sugar plant for the new Makaweli plantation, on the island of Kauai, has been let for the sum of about $250,000, the exact figures not being at hand. The contract was let to Messrs. Mirlees, Watson & Co. of Glasgow, who will immediately begin work thereon and as soon as possible will ship the entire plant to Honolulu, consigned to Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co.
